ABOUT THE CHRIST HOSPITAL HEALTH NETWORK

MISSION

To improve the health of our community and create patient value by providing exceptional outcomes, affordable care and the finest experiences.

VISION

To be a national leader in clinical excellence, patient experience and affordable care.

Transforming Care for More Than 125 Years

The Christ Hospital was founded in compassion and driven by excellence... a tradition that continues to this day. Patients and families have always come first... from the home-like qualities of the original hospital in 1889 to the patient- and family-centered care practiced today. We've also been a center for innovation, bringing many firsts to the community:

- First to admit a female physician (1902)
- First mechanical kidney in Tristate, a forerunner of hemodialysis (1951)
- First intensive care unit (1962)
- First hyperbaric chamber in Ohio Valley (1971)
- First to offer angioplasty (1980)
- First ceramic hip replacement in U.S. (1982)
- First to implant automatic defibrillator (1987)
- First to use stents to prop open blood vessels (1994)
- First to open dedicated heart failure unit (2007)
- First to perform aortic valve replacement without open heart surgery (2011)
- First in region to offer comprehensive joint and spine care – from diagnosis to recovery – in one convenient location (2015)

EXCEPTIONAL OUTCOMES and the Finest Experiences

CINCINNATI NEIGHBORHOODS

The Christ Hospital's central location just north of downtown Cincinnati is convenient and accessible from the more than 200 neighborhoods that exist within the region. No matter what part of town you choose – North, East, West, South, or downtown – Greater Cincinnati offers a wide variety of neighborhoods that are as unique as you. Below is just a sampling of these neighborhoods to give you a quick glimpse into all that Cincinnati has to offer.

Downtown Cincinnati

As the heart of the city, Downtown Cincinnati boasts Fortune 500 companies such as Procter & Gamble, Kroger and Fifth Third; numerous history, arts and entertainment venues; major league sporting facilities; fine and casual dining; fun shopping; and more. The area is also home to numerous holiday celebrations and cultural festivals throughout the year, such as Oktoberfest, Taste of Cincinnati, Cincinnati Reds Opening Day parade, the Flying Pig Marathon, Labor Day Fireworks, and many more. Those who live in downtown Cincinnati enjoy stylish living accommodations such as apartments, lofts, condos and more. Riverfront residents enjoy breathtaking views of the Ohio River and Northern Kentucky skyline.

North

Young families are attracted to Cincinnati's fast-growing northern suburbs for their high caliber schools and diverse housing options. Neighborhoods like West Chester and City of Mason boast newer subdivisions and upscale entertainment and recreation – making them ideal locations for families. Other neighborhoods like Wyoming and Glendale include beautiful historic homes, tree-lined streets, and new construction, offering many options for families.

West

Cincinnati's "West Side" includes tight-knit communities, older homes with a wealth of character, as well as newer housing developments. Neighborhoods such as Northside draw musicians, artists and other creative types who enjoy vintage shops and cool bars. Traditional west side neighborhoods such as Price Hill, Cheviot, Westwood and Delhi include houses and condos of all ages and styles, and are just a short commute to downtown Cincinnati.

East

Many Cincinnatians enjoy the "East Side" luxury condos and townhomes that are right along the Ohio River. Just north of the river, Mt. Lookout and Hyde Park offer historic homes and apartments with both single professionals and families, while farther east, Mariemont and Terrace Park attract families with school-age children and picture-perfect homes. One of the most exclusive areas of Cincinnati is Indian Hill, which includes historic and newer mansions, and Anderson Township offers country clubs, golf courses, and plenty of green space.

South

Across the Ohio River, Northern Kentucky offers numerous neighborhoods that are accessible and convenient to downtown Cincinnati. Those closest to the river, such as Newport and Covington, offer new condo developments, plenty of dining and entertainment, as well as historic, charming homes. A little farther south, areas such as Ft. Mitchell, Florence, Villa Hills, Edgewood and Erlanger offer great schools, tree-lined streets, a variety of shopping and dining options, and new construction.
